III CIRCLE, BELLARY

The Inspectress of Girls' Schools,
III Circle, Bellary.

Honoured Madam,

Humble application on behalf of Maremma, aged 9 years, youngest daughter of Durgayya, late Night watchman, Office of the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, III Circle, Bellary, most respectfully showeth:

1. The above minor Maremma, is the youngest daughter aged 9 years of late Durgayya, Night-watchman of the above office.

2. The minor was under the protection of his father the said late Durgayya, till 13-12-1947 when he breathed his last.

3. The late Durgayya, was appointed as Night-watchman of this office early in 1921 and served as such faithfully and loyally for over 26 years, i.e., till he died on 13-12-47.

4. The minor abovenamed has now become orphan destitute having lost her mother prior to her father's death. The minor is not in a position of age to earn her own independent living and has now become dependent on her sister, Nagamma. The latter expresses her inability to protect her because of the high cost of living compared to her slender means of income.

5. The minor therefore, prays Madam to be sympathetic and recommend her case to the authorities concerned for the grant of

(a) Compassionate gratuity in consideration of loyal, faithful and long and consecutive service of her father for over 26 years, and rendering the minor a destitute orphan in his demise;

O R

(b) such monthly allowance as is deemed reasonable and proper until the minor comes of age and joins her husband.

For which act of kindness and charity, the minor ever be grateful, to the benign and popular Government./

The Minor begs to remain,
Honoured Madam,
Your mostobedient servant,

Bellary,
16th January 1948.

Statement of Nagamma Minor guardian of Narasamma the daughter of the deceased Durugayya late night watchman of the Office of the Inspectress of girls schools III circle. Bellary

xxx

Durugayya has no sons - He has three daughters. i.e. (Nagamma), Kenchamma and Narasamma. Marriages of Kenchamma and myself have been performed and are living with our husbands. Our father breathed his last two months back - His minor daughter Narasamma who was under his protection is now under my care. My father owns a house in Aladahalli Village which may worth Rs 20 or 25. He has no landed property. My father before accepting night watchers post was residing in Aladahalli. When we were still in infant stage we lost our mother. My father did not possess money in cash or in the shape of gold and silver. He possessed no property or houses in Bellary. He was entirely dependent on his wages only. He did not insure his life - He was neither a Provident Fund Contributor nor deposited any amount in any Company. I had left out my husband and was living with my father only. After his death the minor child is under my protection. I have no children. My father did not owe any debts and hence no debts are outstanding. Narayanamma is aged 10 years. She is not attending school. There are no relatives who can maintain the family. I have read the above statement and it is correct.

Statement given by Durgiah - night watchman - office of the Inspectress of girls schools, Kurnool Circle.

Madam,

I entered service about 20 years ago. The Headclerk then was Mr. Venkatappayya. I have not taken leave of any kind during this period of 23 years. Peon Venkatappa was working then as a peon of this office; Peon Giri Rao was also then in service in this office Peon Ummaiah who was then working died later. Sri P.V. Raja Rao, present typist of this office has been in service. I joined duty about 15 days after Venkatappa entered service in this office. I drew Rs 11 per month when appointed & later on it was reduced to Rs 10/-. I left after Mr. Subbarao Headclerk joined duty.
